

PRINCE CONTI HOTEL

A VALENTINO FRENCH QUARTER HOTEL

RESTAURANT & CATERING INFORMATION

- Location:
- The Bombay Club Restaurant and Martini Bistro is located adjacent to the Prince Conti Hotel in the historic French Quarter in New Orleans.
- Ambience:
- Elegant, sophisticated club-like atmosphere with knowledgeable wine and drink servers. A favorite among locals for after-work and late-night entertaining. Long-time proprietor Richard Fiske makes every visitor feel like a local friend. Casual dress accepted, jackets preferred.
- Menu:
- The Bombay Club menus feature food characterized as New World Creole and French. Specialties include Bar-B-Q Shrimp, Duck Duet, and Bombay Filet Mignon. The bar is renowned for the best and largest martini selection in town (125 variations), single malt scotches, ports, reserved bourbons, and premium cigars.
- Capacity:
- The dining room seats 65. The Bombay Club services meeting, receptions and banquets for up to 200 guests at the adjacent historic Valentino Conti House. The restaurant also provides the room service to guests of the Prince Hotel Hotel.
- Service:
- Dinner is served each evening between 5:30 pm and 10:30 pm. Late night dining is available on Thursday – Saturday 10:30 pm – 1:30 am. Reservations are recommended. All major credit cards are accepted.
- Catering:
- Five private dining rooms in adjacent Valentino Conti House provide dramatic catering options for groups meeting for business or pleasure. The exquisitely restored historic building showcases classic French Quarter details: 14-foot ceilings, original crown moldings and ceiling medallions, period furnishings and a wrap-around balcony. The rooms can accommodate 10 – 75 people for a sit-down dinner, or up to 200 for a cocktail style reception.
